EL PASO, TX: Three people are stabbed outside of the Liquor Dicks Bar located on Lee Trevino and the El Paso Police Department's Gang Unit is investigating. The altercation occurred in the parking lot of Liquor Dicks, located at 1360 Lee Trevino on March 26, 2016 at around 2:59am. Pebble Hills Patrol responded and learned that the incident had occurred after the two offenders had been removed from the bar earlier in the night. The victims were approached by the two offenders while outside at which time one of the offenders pulled out a knife and began stabbing the victims. Witnesses then called police and while officers were responding the two offenders got into a vehicle and fled the scene. While fleeing the scene the offenders ran over the 29 year old victim. All three victims were transported to area hospitals for what are believed to be non-life threatening injuries. The Police Department's Gang Unit was brought in to handle this investigation based on preliminary information obtained that indicated that the incident may be gang related. No arrests have been made at this time and the case remains an ongoing investigation.

If anyone has information on this case they are asked to call police at 915-832-4400 or to remain anonymous and possibly qualify for a cash reward you may call Crime Stoppers of El Paso at 915-566-8477.
